

Junior Leader Application 2017

Springbrook Nature Center is accepting applications from students, ages 13-17, who would like to volunteer their time with Day Nature Camp during the summer of 2017. Springbrook's day camps combine nature, science, and fun to create an opportunity for children ages 5-12 to learn about the natural environment. While the summer camps have a full-time staff of naturalists who lead the camp, they rely on youth volunteers to assist in making each day a terrific experience.

Using the table below, please indicate which weeks (and which age groups) you would like to volunteer to help. The day camp coordinator will put together a schedule for the entire summer and will contact you by May 15th. If you have questions, please contact Interpretive Program Supervisor, Tara Rogness at 763.572.3588 or tara.rogness@fridleymn.gov.

When indicating your availability, please be aware that in order to volunteer with any age group, you must be 2 years older than the upper range of the camp. For example, to help with the 10-12 age group, you must be 14.

The interpretive program supervisor will mail out a schedule for you in mid-May.

If you have questions, please contact Tara Rogness using the contact information above.
